

CEU opportunity March 30!

Join us virtually for a free EDI training designed just for you

Culturally Responsive Practices for Behavioral Health Providers is a first-ever CareOregon offering. This daylong training, sponsored by CareOregon, will boost your knowledge of applying equity, diversity and inclusion concepts in your work – and properly documenting them.

This interactive Zoom workshop will show you how to:

- Improve your practice's cultural component
- Document your culturally responsive interventions
- More effectively help your clients meet their goals
- Meet OHA mandates

Details

- Training is over Zoom, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Thursday, March 30
(Session will be repeated Dec. 7, 2023 for Metro and regional practitioners)
- 6 hours CEUs, approved by National Association of Social Workers
- Enrollment is limited to 70 CareOregon providers in the tri-county area

Facilitator

Tori Lopez, LCSW, (she/her), is a trauma-informed equity trainer, consultant at Portland State University's School of Social Work, and private clinician. She's known for expertise that encompasses EDI, state documentation and clinical practice.
